Weekly Devotion from Pastor David

We hear Jesus once again (a third time in Mark) predict his rejection, execution, and rising again to his disciples. The first time, Peter protested and Jesus told him to "Get behind me." He said that Peter was focused on the things of men and not on the things of God. He then taught about how those who wish to be his followers must deny themselves and take up a cross. The second time he told his disciples that he was to be betrayed, executed, and rise again, his disciples were busy arguing which of them was the greatest. They also protested that other people were doing deeds of power but they were not one of them. He told them not to put a stumbling block in the way of the "little ones," and it would be better for them to swim with a millstone around their neck if they did. He speaks of his death a third time and James and John ask for places of honor when he comes into his glory. Once again, Jesus reminds them of what he is about- he didn't come to be served, but to serve. So, what do you still not get about who Jesus is and what he is about? There seems to be a lot of people thinking that Jesus is the ultimate trump card and that gives them the right to do whatever they feel like- even if it means denying someone else, putting themselves first, or seeking to be served. How might you look at the cross and see what Jesus did, and why he did it? Then, maybe you can truly take up your cross and follow in the way of Jesus?
