Weekly Devotion from Pastor David

As Jesus heads towards Jerusalem, he heals a man of his sight.

Then there is a question of his disciples, "Who do you say that I am?"

Then three times Jesus tells them what it means to be the Messiah.

It isn't about glory and power, it is about service.

It is about sacrifice for the neighbor.

It is about seeing them as beloved children of God.

Three times Jesus tells us.

Three times we get it wrong.

Just before he enters Jerusalem he meets one more blind man, and heals him.

How do we need to be healed? What will we see with healed eyes?

Maybe we will see the nearness of the Kingdom of God?

Maybe we will see the suffering servant leading?

Maybe we will see the Cross?

Maybe we will finally see what our cross is so that we can take it up in faith and follow our Lord and Savior?
