Weekly Devotion from Pastor David

Have you ever planted seeds? For flowers, or maybe even a garden?

Dirt, place, seed, maybe some water- DONE!

Right?

Is that all there is? Often what you want out of the planting, and the amount of what you want, is strongly influenced by what you all do to nurture the seed.

Weed, feed, water, soil care, etc.

What about the seed of faith? How do you nurture and care for that?

What kind of fruit is it bearing? How might you aid the growth?

How might this community help to nurture your seed of faith?

How might you help nurture someone else's?

WHEN: By July 1st, if possible (content will be made available to everyone once it's compiled, hopefully by July 4, 2021).

WHERE: Email to skpwilson@gmail.com

TIHAN Volunteers Janice Molina & Jenny Hartung prepare to distribute CarePackages at TIHAN's drive-thru/walk-up event.

Volunteers have a real and caring impact on supporting people living with HIV in Tucson! Whether you are helping provide administrative support in the office, offering care and support directly helping people living with HIV, or assisting with fundraising events, it takes all of us to contribute as best we can.

Each month, we have a Volunteer Orientation, in which you'll learn about HIV, hear from a few CarePartners living with HIV, and learn about TIHAN's volunteer needs and onboarding process. Currently these are conducted via Zoom, but soon we'll be able to hold in-person Volunteer Orientations. Advance registration is required. Contact us at (520) 299-6647 or VolunteerCoordinator@tihan.org to learn more and sign up to get involved, or visit TIHAN's website for more information: www.tihan.org then click on Volunteer and then Current Volunteer Opportunities.
