Weekly Devotion from Pastor David

Reread the Gospel for today (Mark 5: 21-43).

Where do you hear about faith?

Where do you see faith in action?

What part of faith is knowing/trusting; and, what part of faith is acting/responding?

How might you exercise both?

In what ways can you invite others for the journey to touch the hem of His cloak?

SUMMER RETREAT via Zoom
Open to everyone in the Grand Canyon Synod
Saturday July 10th & 17th 8:45am-Noon
The "S" Course - Satan, Sin, EScatology,
ReSurrection, and Salvation

What people believe today is not necessarily what people believed in biblical times. Indeed people's beliefs about a Satan, eschatology, resurrection and salvation have evolved over time. This is a brief introduction of this evolution from the earliest parts of the Hebrew Scriptures, to the later Hebrew Scriptures after the Babylonian exile, to what Jesus said, to what the rest of the New Testament says, to what we believe today. We will look at what might be an appropriate "S" theology moving forward in the 21st Century. The "S" Course might surprise you and even make you rethink what you yourself believe about the five S's.
