Weekly Devotion from Pastor David

Have you ever "lost your head?"

Something happened and you just completely lost it?

Usually it was something done by someone else on a bad day and there was juST tOo mUCh ANd YoU COuLdN'T TAKE ANYMORE???

How did you feel?

Now what if you were the person who did it?

And did it knowingly?

More to the point, what if your choice required someone else to be sacrificed to that desire/want? Would you still want it "served on a silver platter and brought to you"?

Have you ever considered how your decisions affect those around you?

How might that reflection cause you to reconsider how you truly "love your neighbor as yourself"?

May you reflect on this: "Live simply, so others may simply live." - Gandhi

8 Great things you could do to help with Sunday worship

Gathering in worship is a central part of our experience as a Christian. Worship is meant to be interactive, which means we need your help! We need you to sing and respond- but also to serve!

Please prayerfully consider how you may help us all worship.

Training is joyfully provided- as is grace as we learn!

Please fill out our Worship Help Wanted survey to let us know how you would like to volunteer with worship.
